

Citizens Police Complaint Board Members

Robin Kimp, President
Julie Barrett
Michael Bryant
Duane Ingram
Karla Lopez-Owens
Horatio Luster
Andrew Shank

How Can I Become a Member of CPCB?

All members must be citizens who are residents of Marion County. You may be appointed by the Mayor, be recommended by a City County Councillor, an IMPD District Commander, a current CPCB member or submit an application to the City County Council clerk's office.

Complaint Board Overview

- CPCB/CPCO Established 28 years ago
 - Independent civilian oversight board reviewing complaints filed against sworn members of the Indianapolis Metropolitan Police Department
 - Comprised of 9 voting members and 3 non-voting police officers
 - Members appointed by Mayor(4) City County Council(7) and FOP (1)
 - CPCB reviews formal complaint cases filed within 60 days of an incident.
 - Board meets monthly on 2nd Monday of each month
-

Good conduct?

You may submit an officer compliment
to: *CPCO
*IMPD Chief's Office at 317-327-3282
*IMPD District Roll Call site

Citizens Police Complaint Board & Citizens Police Complaint Office

200 E Washington St, Suite 1841
Indianapolis IN 46204

PH: 317.327.3440

Online Complaint Form:
<http://tinyurl.com/IndyCPCO>

Email: CPCO@indy.gov

 @IndyCPCO

How do I file a complaint against an IMPD officer?

☎ 327-3440

Online <http://tinyurl.com/IndyCPCO>

🐦 @IndyCPCO

CPCO@indy.gov

Info needed to file a complaint:

- Date, time & location
- Name and/or physical description of officer
- If officer name not known, officer I.D.# or vehicle number
- Witness name(s) & contact info
- Any case report/CAD/crash incident #'s
- Citations, medical records or any other documentation/evidence you believe may be helpful.
- Your contact info
- Accurate and truthful description of incident

Complaint Process

CPCO

Intakes complaint, processes case; sends to Professional Standards Division (PSD) for Investigation

Professional Standards Division

Assigns to Internal Affairs investigator or District supervisor for investigation

Investigator interviews complainants, witnesses & officer(s); PSD returns completed, investigated case to CPCO.

CPCO prepares completed complaint case for review by Citizens Police Complaint Board; CPCB reviews case, votes to endorse/not endorse findings.

CPCO sends case outcome letter to complainant and involved officer(s).

CPCB FAQ's

What happens if the IMPD officer is found to be in violation of Dept. Policy?

If there is sufficient evidence to prove the allegation(s) made in the complaint, the complaint will be ruled SUSTAINED. The Chief of Police will then take the appropriate disciplinary action. The complainant is informed then in regards to the decision by CPCO office.

What happens if there is insufficient evidence to prove/disprove the allegations made in the complaint?

With insufficient evidence, the case will be ruled NOT SUSTAINED and notification of such will be sent to the complainant and the officer's name will be entered in the Internal Affairs Pro System set up by IMPD.

What happens if the IMPD officer is found to acted in accordance with Departmental Policy?

If the officer(s) was found to have acted properly and in accordance with IMPD regulations, a disposition of EXONERATED will be attached to the complaint and notification of that fact will be sent to the complainant.

What if the allegations do not coincide with the evidence?

If the information provided by the complainant does not coincide with the evidence obtained, the complaint will be ruled UNFOUNDED and no further action will be taken.